나의 동네

당신의 동네에 대해 알고 싶어요. 동네가 어떻게 생겼나요? 당신의 동네를 되도록 상세히 설명해 주세요.

(서론 - 집과 동네)

- It's a good question because I really like where I live now.

- I live in Seoul, which is the capital of South Korea.

- I moved to a studio apartment in Seoul about 5 years ago, and I've been very happy with my current neighborhood.

(본론 1 - 동네 위치와 생김새)

- So, my neighborhood is located in the north part of Seoul.

- The name of my town is Jongno.

- It's a mostly residential neighborhood with many restaurants, coffee shops and grocery stores.

- In addition, there are some side roads with apartment buildings and small shops.
- Oh! there's a subway station at the intersection, which makes it really convenient to get around.

(본론 2 - 동네의 특별한 점)

- What I like the most about my neighborhood is that there's a really nice park/it's a surprisingly quiet area.
- I mean, it is located in a major city, but there's a nice forest park with lots of trees!
- So, I like that the window in my apartment looks out over the forest/the trees behind the apartment building.
- The view is just amazing/awesome/so pretty!

(마무리 - 내 동네 최고!)

- Honestly, at times, I feel like I want to move to a new place/somewhere new/another city because living in the same neighborhood can be a little boring.
- But overall, I can say I'm definitely/mostly/pretty satisfied with my neighborhood.

그 이웃을 어떻게 처음 알게 되었나요? 그 이웃과 친한가요? 보통 함께 무엇을 하나요?

(서론 - 이웃 이름)

- I'd like to tell you about my favorite neighbor who lives in my apartment building.
- His name is Min Soo, and he lives directly across the hall from me.
- I've known him since I moved to my apartment, so I guess it's been about 3 years now.

(본론 1 - 이웃 소개와 생김새)

- So let me tell you more about Min Soo.
- Min Soo and I are the same age. We turned 26 this year.

- You know what? I first met him at the park near my apartment building.
- Although he was with other neighbors, he saw that I was alone and immediately struck up a conversation with me.
- We've been really close/good friends/best friends ever since.

(마무리 - 내 이웃 좋아!)

- It actually happened a long time ago/about 20 years ago/when I was a little kid.

(본론1 - 무슨 일 묘사)

- So when I was a kid/about 7, I lived in a quiet/small neighborhood near a large lake park.
- One day, I went to the park by myself although my parents always told me not to go there alone.
- I guess I just got so curious.
- So, I went by myself anyway, and on my way to the park/home, I got lost.
- At first, I tried to backtrack the way I came, but it was no use.
- You know what? I got so scared and started to cry.

(본론 2 - 어떤 결과 묘사)

- Can you imagine? So when I didn't return, my parents got worried and went out to track me down.
- Fortunately, before it got really dark, I heard my dad and other neighbors yelling my name!
- They were like, "Jenna~ Kim Jenna~"
- Of course I just ran to my dad as fast as I could.
- I was so relieved at that moment.

(마무리 - 기억에 남는 날!)

- I know it's a long time ago, but these days, I'm often reminded of the incident when I visit the park in my hometown.
